

BUSINESS ANALYST

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

The Business Analyst works with the technical and QA teams and product development create business requirements and manage the product development release cycle. The Business Analyst will support product development activities through requirements gathering, prototyping sessions and functional and technical documentation. The Business Analyst will also work closely with senior management to create new reports and metrics used to analyze managed markets activities incorporate those into the core software platform(s). The Business Analyst will also work on data loading, bridging and related third-party data validation activities and streamline loading process through automation.

Responsibilities

The Business Analyst will play an integral role in supporting client needs and consulting projects. Specifically s/he will be responsible for:

- Translate market trends and company vision into roadmap items and product requirements
- Define, manage, and implement product roadmap items
- Manage release lifecycle
- Communicate business objectives and requirements to development teams clearly and effectively.
- Write business requirements and specifications
- Work with the development, QA, and technical writing teams to implement new enhancements
- Work with the development team to improve the usability of the application.
- Plan and implement rollout of new releases, including but not limited to clients, internal and external.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Required Skills

- Typically two or more years of product development or business consulting experience
- Demonstrated communication, analytical and problem solving skills, and short term and long term planning skills.
- Fluency in written and spoken English are required.
- Background in project management, SDLC or related development activities
- Minimum Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience.

Preferred Skills

- Prior pharmaceutical, med device or healthcare experience
- Prior experience with SaaS-based and fat client software solutions

- Knowledge of managed markets data sets, activities, and landscape